Nantucket, you see, is a natural, amazingly beautiful vacation-land . . . nowhere is there any other island quite like Nantucket. Here in the warm, home-like atmosphere and restful charm of early New England, you will find quiet, enjoyable relaxation. Here, too, with miles of silvery, sugar-sand beaches and endless reaches of the sparkling blue waters of the Atlantic are wonderful opportunities for exciting, sporting recreation . . . surf bathing in the breakers, beach picnics at the edge of the wind-swept dunes, surf casting for gamey blues and stripers, sailing before the ever-present breezes, cycling and hiking over the winding roads that wander in every direction through the silent moors. And, at sundown, with the cool ocean winds sweeping in and the surf beating steadily on the broad beaches, there comes over old Nantucket, the warmth of romance and serenity and deep comfort.

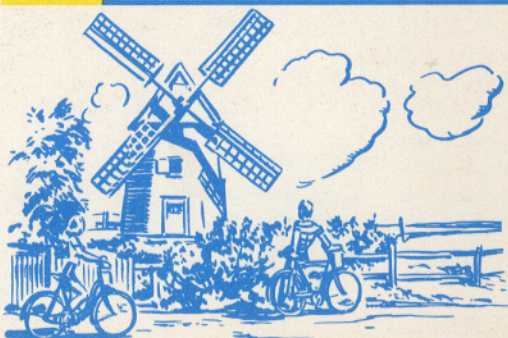

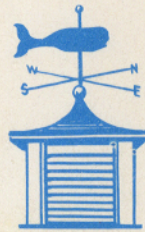

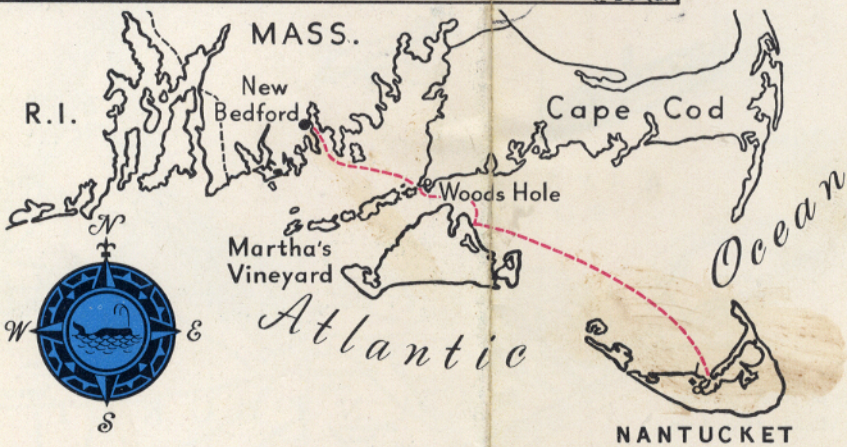

Sea Cliff Inn offers you every comfort and facility for a wonderful Summer vacation you will never forget. Large, airy sleeping rooms, spacious piazzas and balconies, unsurpassed cuisine and complete understanding service are features that distinguish Sea Cliff Inn.

Housekeeping Cottages

Sea Cliff Inn also offers, as ideal accommodations for families, beautifully furnished, excellently located cottages. Laid out with spacious bedrooms, baths and fireplaces, these fine housekeeping cottages are available by the month or by the season.

Nantucket is one of the oldest landmarks in New England's fine old history, being included in the royal grant to the Plymouth Company in 1621. In 1641, the island was sold to one Thomas Mayhew who in 1659 sold portions of the island to others.

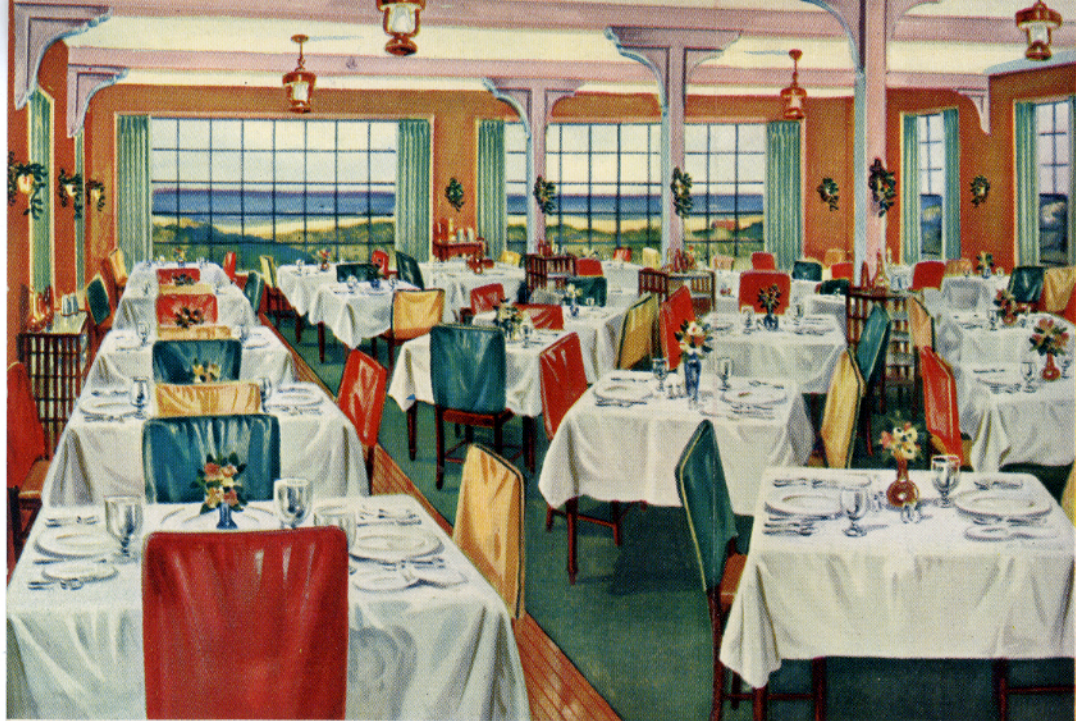

Nantucket never seems to have lost the color and flavor of its history of three hundred and more years . . . cobbled streets, old colonial homes, winding paths, waterfront buildings and wharves and over all a simple peace of quiet, good living.
